CARNIVAL GLASS AUCTION

Friday, February 11, 1977; 6 p.m.

Saturday, February 12, 1977; 10 a.m.

Holiday Inn West
I-270 & St. Charles Rock Road
St. Louis, Missouri

Mrs. Ed Gaida, owner

It is with mixed feelings that we present this collection of carnival glass to be auctioned. We have a feeling of pride, as always when we sell a collection of quality glass, but over-riding that is a feeling of sadness because of the reason for this sale.

Last year, Ed Gaida of Victoria, Texas, one of the best known and well-liked collectors in the country, passed away, leaving his many friends with a great feeling of loss.

Ed and Marilyn Gaida were very active carnival glass enthusiasts, taking a real interest in the novice collectors and doing their best to assist them. Quite a number of the patterns in Mrs. Hartung's books were sketched from pieces loaned by Ed and Marilyn. This is just one example of the ways in which they shared their knowledge of carnival glass. They were just about the first collectors we met after we began collecting. They were present at the first auction we held in Douglass and have been at many since then. The Gaidas were active in organizing the carnival glass associations and Ed held office several times. There are few, if any, collectors who have not heard the Gaida name.

The Gaidas did not have a huge collection, but they put together a collection of quality glass and enjoyed every minute, happy over each new addition just as any true collector is. Marilyn has told us that she plans to remain actively involved in carnival glass activities and will be attending future conventions, visiting old friends and looking forward to meeting new collectors. We join Marilyn in inviting you to this fine auction.

The Gateway Carnival Glass Club of the St. Louis area will be hosting a hospitality room.

Preview: Friday, 2 p.m. Terms: Cash. Checks accepted with proper identification.

For room reservations, contact the Holiday Inn direct at 314-291-5100.

We will be happy to take care of packing and shipping purchases for those who fly in.
