When you talk about carnival glass, collectors today talk about iridescence, and this collection is outstanding in color and iridescence. Fred and Helen Greguire have collected for iridescence since they sold their first collection. Also, Helen's collection of lamps from her book "Carnival Glass in Lights" are a sight to behold. In no auction in the history of carnival collecting has there been as good of opportunity to purchase quality carnival lighting. Come to the St. Peter Holiday Inn for a history making sale. Please ask for 1st or 2nd floor rooms. Preview: Friday, May 14, 4 p.m.
