NOTE: Read each line, as we have accentuated the type of no particular piece, all are special.

SPECIAL NOTE: Auctioneers have often been accused—and so wrongly, I might add—of excessive hyperbole when it comes to describing the carnival glass items in their auctions. However, this sale is so powerful, with so many great rarities, unusual shapes and spectacular color that I could write a paragraph about almost every piece in the sale. Instead, I will use this opening header to state the above and to remind readers that long-windedness could be applied to virtually every listing. I have suppressed my natural inclination to describe in illustrative terms, depending on the savvy of the buyers and my photographs to show the pieces to their best advantage. With these thoughts in mind, please read and enjoy the brochure! Mickey
