We're back in Columbus with a beautiful collection to take with us! The McDaniel's have been in carnival glass for quite some time now and at this time have decided to sell their collection. Beautiful iridescence was number one with them for sure. We could have highlighted almost every piece here just based on the quality of color. Just a beautiful collection for you to have a shot at. You will not be disappointed in this collection. We will be selling the second part of their contemporary carnival glass on November 12th along with the Reimenschnieder vintage carnival glass on Nov. 13th, so watch for that big weekend. See you in Columbus!
